- (d) the person is in good health and possesses health insurance coverage.

(3) Where, having received an application under subsection (1), the Work Permit Board or the Chief Immigration Officer, as the case may be, is satisfied that the criteria in subsection (2) are met, the Work Permit Board or the Chief Immigration Officer, having regard to the criteria contained in section 44(3) may, upon payment of the prescribed fee, issue a Certificate for Specialist Caregivers, valid for five years, to take effect upon the expiry of the employee's final work permit or permission granted under section 52(4) or, in the event that the employee's final work permit or permission granted under section 52(4) has expired, upon the date of the decision of the Board or the Chief Immigration Officer; and such Certificate shall be renewable for a period of five years, on application to the Board or the Chief Immigration Officer and upon payment of the prescribed fee, if the criteria contained in subsection (2) remain satisfied.

(7) A Certificate for Specialist Caregivers shall not confer any rights on the employee's spouse or dependants with respect to residence and employment rights in the Islands.

(8) Where a work permit is granted in respect of the gainful occupation of a person, the earlier gainful occupation of whom had been authorised by a previous work permit, such grant shall not give rise to any right to, or any expectation of a right to, any further new work permit thereafter, and the Board or the Chief Immigration Officer may, in any case, refuse an application for such further new work permit without any right arising to the applicant concerned to appeal against such refusal either to the Immigration Appeals Tribunal or the Grand Court on the grounds that the previous grant gave rise to any right or expectation of any right to a further work permit.

(9) Where a person has been continuously authorised by a gainful occupation licence or a temporary gainful occupation licence granted under any earlier law, or a work permit, to be gainfully employed and by virtue of such authorisations he or any other person has been lawfully legally and ordinarily resident in the Islands for any period which is one of the qualifications for application for a grant of the right to be Caymanian or the right permanently to reside in the Islands, such residence shall not of itself give rise to any right or expectation of a right to such a grant.

(10) An application for the grant or renewal of a work permit may be refused and a work permit may be revoked by the Board or the Chief Immigration Officer on any of the following grounds-

 - (j) that, in respect of an application for a temporary work permit, the Chief Immigration Officer is of the opinion that the number or frequency of temporary work permits previously obtained or continuing to be sought in respect of a worker suggests more than temporary employment and constitutes a deliberate attempt to circumvent the operations of the provisions of section 52(1) and (14); or
 - (k) that the applicant failed to give the written undertaking referred to in section 42(4)(b).
- (11) Prior to the revocation of, or refusal to renew, a work permit-
